

The School of Criminology at the University of Haifa invites applications for a tenure-track position at any rank. Candidates must hold a PhD in criminology or in one of the affiliated fields, and present excellent academic achievements. We are particularly interested in applications from candidates whose research agenda corresponds with the School's two graduate (M.A) programs: Crime, Law and Society; and Crime and Addictions. Areas of interest include but are not limited to: social neuroscience, psychopathology, addictions, criminal justice, and law and society. Applicants will be evaluated based on their potential to establish or maintain a prominent research program, to capture external funding, and to excel in teaching. Applications must include a CV (including a list of publications and a description of research and teaching interests), as well as contact information for three references. Please send applications by mail or email to: Dr. Tali Gal, Head of M.A. Studies, School of Criminology, University of Haifa, Mount Carmel, Haifa, Israel 31905 (e-mail: tgall@univ.haifa.ac.il).
