

The Department of Psychology

The Herta and Paul Amir Faculty of Social Sciences

Available Tenure-Track Positions: The Department of Psychology at the University of Haifa, Israel, invites applications for open-rank tenure-track positions, beginning in the 2017-2018 academic year. We are looking for outstanding candidates for positions in (I) clinical child psychology, as well as (II) developmental psychology. The successful candidates will demonstrate the potential to develop a strong research program, supervise graduate student research, attain competitive funding, and teach at the graduate and undergraduate levels. Academic rank commensurate with qualifications. The positions are contingent upon budgetary approval.

About Our Department: The University of Haifa is uniquely situated in pastoral national park, on Mount Carmel, with views of the Mediterranean and northern Israel. Our Department of Psychology is among the leading departments of psychology in Israel. We are committed to the advancement of research in and across domains of psychological science, and the training of graduate students in basic and applied science of psychology. Our department is a vibrant, dynamic and stimulating scientific community for our faculty and students. We are strongly committed to and systematically support the professional success and growth of our junior faculty. We are thus especially interested in candidates that are not only exceptional scholars but who also want to be a part of these collective departmental efforts.

Application Deadline: Please submit your application no later than October 1st, 2016. To apply, please send: (1) curriculum vitae, (2) research statement, (3) teaching statement, and (4) the names and email addresses of at least three referees (5) a brief cover letter stating whether you are applying to the child-clinical or developmental

Position to: Jenny Kurman, Ph.D., Chair, Department of Psychology, University of Haifa, Haifa 31905, Israel. Email (preferable): jennyk@psy.haifa.ac.il